THE SENSUOUS SENATOR

By Michael Parker

SHOW DATES: APRIL 8, 9 (8 PM); APRIL 10 (3 PM);
APRIL 15, 16 (8 PM); AND APRIL 17 (3 PM)

Directed by Tiffany Dinsmore; produced by Lou Clyde

You laughed your way through Michael Parker's Hotbed Hotel, one of Chapin Theatre Company's most successful productions, and you better get ready to do it again with The Sensuous Senator. Parker is a master of creating characters whose romantic appetites get them into all sorts of compromising situations and when Senator Douglas runs for President on a "morality" platform, it might be his undoing — unless he can somehow prevent his house from being filled with voluptuous young women and libidinous politicians while his wife is out of town. The only thing is, he's the one who starts it all. Add in a muckraking reporter from The National Intruder and a snow-closed airport that sends Mrs. Douglas back home, and you have comic chaos that will leave you falling out of your seats with laughter at the Harbison Theatre.

THE CURIOUS SAVAGE

By John Patrick

SHOW DATES: JUNE 17, 18 (8 PM); JUNE 19 (3 PM);
JUNE 24, 25 (8 PM); AND JUNE 26 (3 PM)

Directed by Jocelyn Sanders; produced by Jim DeFelice

You'll still be laughing come June when we present John Patrick's The Curious Savage, a gentle classic comedy that has timeless appeal. Mrs. Savage inherits $10 million from her late husband, but must overcome her greedy stepchildren's attempts to wrest it from her. They commit her to a sanatorium in an attempt to "bring her to her senses," but their plan backfires as Mrs. Savage and her new friends at the rest home, a sweet band of misfits, attempt to foil their plans. By the end of the evening, you'll know who's insane — and who's not — as you laughingly cheer the residents of The Cloisters in their victory over Mrs. Savage's obnoxious relatives.

THE HOUND OF THE BASKERVILLES

By Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Adapted by David Pichette and R. Hamilton Wright

SHOW DATES: SEPT. 9, 10 (8 PM); SEPT. 11 (3 PM);
SEPT. 16, 17 (8 PM); AND SEPT. 18 (3 PM)

Directed by Glenn Farr; produced by Linda DuRant

Remember in 2012 when Chapin Theatre Company chilled you with a new adaptation of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde? This season, we're bringing you more chills — laced with laughter — with a fresh take on Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's The Hound of The Baskervilles. Adapted for the stage by David Pichette and R. Hamilton Wright, this version was first staged by the Seattle Repertory Theatre in 2013. With the aid of special lighting and projections, we'll travel with famous consulting detective Sherlock Holmes and colleague Dr. John Watson as they journey from Baker St. through various parts of London to the moors of Devonshire to ascertain whether there actually is a hellish hound stalking Sir Henry Baskerville — or they are dealing with a diabolically clever murderer. Broadway World called the play "a fresh, fun new script that makes for a chilling romp." We know you'll agree.

Two bumbling Alabama brothers have never shot a duck, but think they just bagged an angel. Remember Becky and Sue and their holiday misadventures involving turkey necks and Black Friday shopping in Chapin's original 2014 production of 'Tis the Season? Well, Chapin's version of Lucy and Ethel are baaa-ack in Lou Clyde's extension of their hilarious holiday adventures. Sue, now a bored, lonely resident of Aged Oaks Retirement Home, entertains her teenaged granddaughter, Emma, with raucous trips down memory lane as she recalls holidays past spent with her best friend, Becky. In the process, she reminds us all that the stresses of the holidays usually result in the best and funniest of memories of life.
