MESSIAH ON THE FRIGIDAIRE

The season starts with a laugh with a story set in Elroy, SC. When what appears to be the image of Jesus appears on Lou Ann Hightower's refrigerator in her trailer park, the town is thrust into the evangelical spotlight, setting into motion a frenzy of conflict, communion and good old fashioned commerce. When the National Investigator turns the appearance into front-page headlines, Lou Ann's trailer park attracts miracle seekers, soul searchers and disciples with a decidedly political agenda, causing Lou Ann, her husband Dwayne and best friend Betsy to undergo an evolution in their relationships with each other as they come to grips with their lowly status in the social system of the rural South. Touching and funny, the story demonstrates that God surely does move in mysterious ways.

MID-LIFE! The Crisis Musical tackles with humor and wisdom the truths about reaching "certain milestones" in life. Three men and three women share through song and skits the "joys" and frustrations of mammograms, love handles, weekend warriors and proctology exams, along with truths about experiencing forgetfulness, needing reading glasses and riding the roller coaster called menopause. If any of this sounds familiar, or even if it doesn't, you'll be rolling with laughter as you join us for this hilarious romp!
