GETTING SARA MARRIED

By Sam Bobrick

Director: MonaLisa Botts

Sara Hastings is an unmarried lawyer, much too busy to get involved with romance. Her aunt Martha has decided to take matters into her own hands and find her a husband. APRIL 26-MAY 5

THE DIXIE SWIM CLUB

By Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope and Jamie Wooten

Director: Ripley Thames

Five very different Southern women, whose friendships began many years ago while on their college swim team, set aside a long weekend every August to recharge those relationships. Free from husbands, kids and jobs, they meet at the same beach cottage on North Carolina's Outer Banks to catch up, laugh and meddle in each other's lives. The show focuses on four of those weekends and spans a period of thirty-three years. As their lives unfold and the years pass, these women increasingly rely on one another, through advice and raucous repartee, to get through life's challenges. When fate throws a wrench into one of their lives, these friends rally with strength and love, taking this comedy in a poignant and surprising direction.

SEPT. 27-OCT. 6

A NICE FAMILY GATHERING

By Phil Olson

Director: Glenn Farr

A Nice Family Gathering is our anniversary gift to our audience. Well-received when it became the first show ever produced at The Harbison Theater at Midlands Technical College in 2010, it's the story of a man who loved his wife so much, he almost told her. During the first Thanksgiving Day gathering at the Lundeen household since the patriarch died, Dad returns as a ghost so he can tell his wife he loved her, something he neglected to do while he was alive. After all, they were only married for 41 years. The problem is, she can't hear or see him, and Dad chooses to involve his younger son Carl—the only person aware of his father's ghost—in his holiday shenanigans, which come to a head when Mom invites a date for Thanksgiving dinner.
